Article 1 The Directions are established in order to enhance CYCU's globalization and upgrade students' international learning abilities.

Article 2 Each college of CYCU may apply for the subsidy referred to herein subject to its need for upgrading of the international learning environment.

Article 3 The international lecturer subsidized herein shall be capable of helping students upgrading their international learning abilities in certain academic or professional fields.

Article 4 Each college/department may apply for the subsidies for international lecturer with the Office of International and Cross-Strait Education. The subsidies shall be subject to review by the review team consisting of the members invited by the Office of International and Cross-Strait Education.

Article 5 No more than 10 international lecturers shall be approved per year. The subsidy per international lecture shall be no more than NT$110,000, and the lecturing period shall be more than two days up to two weeks. The first-come first-served system applies.

Article 6 Each college/department which applies for the subsidies shall prepare one copy of each of the following materials, and apply for the subsidies with the Office of International and Cross-Strait Education within one month prior to the lecture upon primary review and approval by the college/department:

1. Proposal for the lecture (including the proposal title, proposal contents, lecture outline and schedule, audiences of the lecture, expected benefits, scope of subsidy, and amount thereof).

2. Invited international lecturer's profile.
3. Other related information.

Article 7 The scope of subsidies referred to herein:

1. Economy-class round-trip ticket fare.
2. Hourly Pay: Subject to the actual teaching hours, per CYCU's "Table of Faculty's and Staff's Salary Standards."
3. Per Diem: Subject to the actual number of days, per "Table of Maximum Payment Standards for National Science and Technology Council's Subsidies for Foreign Scholars and Experts to Come to Taiwan to Engage in Scientific and Technological Cooperation Research Activities."

Article 8 In the case of a Nobel Prize winner as the lecturer, in addition to the subsidy for the lecturer's business-class ticket fare, upon request, certain expenses of the lecturer's accompanying family members may be reimbursed separately. The allowance per day shall be NT$ 20,000 in principle. In the case of any other scholars and experts, the highest rates prescribed by the National Science and Technology Council shall apply.

Article 9 The requesting unit shall submit a final report in the format as attached within one month at the end of the lecture.

Article 10 The proposal shall be decided subject to the fund budgeted by CYCU in the school year.

Article 11 The Directions are passed by the International and Cross-Strait Education Collaboration Steering Committee, and shall be promulgated and enforced by the President. The same shall apply when the Directions are amended.
